

Paper whites

Paperwhites is a combination theme stemming from my love of paper ephemera & beachcombing. The colour palette ranges from creamy whites through to soft whispery silver & golds to barely-there pinks to dirty purples. Think vintage Mother of Pearl, sea urchins and lovely old crunchy crepe papers.

My love of all things paper starts with their names: Crepe, onionskin, Glassine, Vellum Pattern, Tissue, Self strip, Tracing, Flax, Mulberry

And then extends to its functions: Postcards, paper squished between French ribbon, love letters, old cheques, shelf liners, doilies, patty pans, backs of botanical plates, waxy paper tied with string, flashcards, wrapped sugar cubes, matchbooks.

As for beachcombing, my huge collection of Cabinets of Curiosities, inspired much of the paint colours from: Ghost Nautilus, Mother of Pearl, Seaurchins & their quills, Sand Dollars, Kelp Shells, bones of sea creatures and all forms of flotsam & jetsam.
